Politics has played a part in with Japanese companies responding criticism from Washington. But economparison with the U.S., Europe is still an undeveloped market for Japanese

Lean touched Japan, too. Nothing has poisoned European relations more bitterly than the treat-vision that subtly colored our view of the victor.

Gigot "would be leading the fight" against Rush's "neglect" of the Kurds. Gigot cites Burke's defense of what he called "the Kurds of his own day," "the British subjects in India." The tangle of historical confusions becomes richer. Gigot says, Burke's speeches im-peaching Warren Hastings show that Burke would favor military intervention on behalf of the Kurds. Well, now.
