

The illustration depicts a scene from the Fate/LeND Order. In the foreground, a woman with long, flowing white hair and a black eye mask over her right eye is shown from the chest up. She has a confident, slightly mischievous expression and is wearing a light blue button-down shirt with a red tie, which is unbuttoned at the top. She holds a purple flip phone in her right hand. In the lower-left foreground, a young man with dark hair is cowering on the ground, his face pressed against the pavement in a state of panic and fear. In the background, a woman with blonde hair and a blue helmet-like headpiece is running away, carrying a large brown bag. The setting appears to be a city street with a bicycle rack and a building in the distance.
